

Dear Parent / Carer,

As we approach our first class assemblies of the school year, we are updating our permission files for children attending Anson Primary School.

As part of the General Data Protection Regulations we must obtain consent from parents to continue our work in recording school activities and sharing them with parents using our school website. We find using film is a great way to make the children feel valued, give them an audience and raise their self esteem and confidence.

By giving your consent we will be able to;

- film children during their class assembly
- share class assemblies with parents and families (privately and on the school website)
- use photographs on the website to showcase your child's learning

As part of our commitment to data protection, we will;

- make sure photographs are never uploaded with the names of pupils (without specific consent)
- ensure we let you know when a new upload has taken place.

Please note that work uploaded to our secure remote learning portal is part of our duties as a school under the remote learning requirements and permission is not required. If you sign the consent form for filming class assemblies for Anson TV, but wish to withdraw your consent at a later date, you may do so in writing to your child's class teacher.

All of our video recordings and photographs are kept in a secure archive for use in our end of year celebrations and the Leaver's events. While other video content is removed from our secure storage when your child leaves the school, class assemblies are kept in an Anson archive and are not deleted. Your consent allows us to use class assembly footage for our annual Anson Academy Awards and milestone events in the history of the school.

If you decide not to sign the form, please note that a pixelation will be placed to obscure your child's face in any film or group photograph used for publication. The assembly will still be filmed but your child will not be featured.

Please sign the form below and return it to the school office during the admission process.
